Discussion Director Purple

Reading selection: page $\qquad$ to page

Name:

Novel title: $\qquad$
Role: Identify the most important parts of the assigned reading and develop questions that your group will discuss. Don't worry about the small details: focus on major themes or big ideas in the text. Keep the discussion focused on them. What interests you will most likely interest those in your group as well. You may use the sample questions as a "basis" to formulate your own.

Sample Questions:

* What were you thinking about as you read? What did the text make you think about?
* What did you think was the major purpose or most important idea of this part of the text? The "lesson"?
* What one question would you ask the author if you had a chance?
* What was the single most important event in this section and why?
* What was the most important change that took place in the text? How and why did it happen?
* What do you know now that you didn't know before? What is the author's purpose, bias, or prejudice?

What incident or conflict does the author use to begin the story? Why do you think the author chose this beginning?

* How does the author create suspense? Which character moves the plot along faster?
Discussion Director's questions: MUST HAVE 5 QUESTIONS

Group's discussion points or "answers" to your questions:

[^0]

[^0]:    Here you should Identify tone on what you've read thus far: (2 QUTOES)

