Role: Your job is to locate a few special sections of text that you believe are worth hearing and discussing. These passages should be memorable, interesting, puzzling, funny or important. *(Make sure you properly cite every quotation.) You decide which passages are worth hearing and then jot down why you chose them and what you want to say about them to the group. You may use the sample questions as a “basis” to formulate your own.

Sample Questions: What is happening in the passage? Why did you choose the passage? What makes this passage so memorable, important or interesting? If the passage confuses you, what do you want to ask group members to help you understand? What does the passage mean? Why is it worth repeating? What important part of the text does the passage help you understand?
