

In the novel _____ (fill in the title – be sure to use capital letters) the author _____ (full name) uses the literary device of _____ and the claim of _____ to reveal the _____ (purpose).

Literary device:

Claim:

Characterization:

name ONE character and provide ONE personality trait

Internal Conflict:

name ONE character and include what the internal conflict is about

External Conflict:

tell who is involved in the external conflict

Symbol/Archetype

tell what ONE is and what it stands for

Purpose:

Characterization can reveal conflict OR theme statement

Internal Conflict can reveal Characterization OR theme statement

External Conflict can reveal Characterization OR theme statement

Symbol/Archetype can reveal Characterization OR theme statement

CLASSROOM EXAMPLE: Literary Device

In the play, The Crucible, Arthur Miller uses characterization of Abigail being manipulative and controlling to develop an external conflict with Tituba.

CLASSROOM EXAMPLE: Theme Statement

In the play, The Crucible, Arthur Miller uses characterization of Abigail being manipulative and controlling to develop the theme of people who control others through fear, bring chaos to everyone.